

“Ugly Duckling” Final Assignment:

100 Points

Due Date: Sunday, May 17 at midnight

Although we didn’t get to perform “The Ugly Duckling,” we did prepare. We were on the 10 yard line, ready to score. I hope you do not feel failure in any way because you didn’t get to present your hard work to the masses. I saw it, your cast mates saw it, and you saw yourselves. I hope you will always take pride in your own preparation and growth throughout the 3 quarters we had together.

Your May assignment (and final assignment) is to prepare a response to ALL the questions below, then make a video recording of yourself sharing your answer. Please make a separate video for each prompt (I will compile them and edit them and share them with you, and I will show prompt 2 to show next year’s cast!).

Prompt 1: What did you learn about yourself as a performer through rehearsals?

Prompt 2: What advice would you give yourself or a person auditioning for a role in “The Ugly Duckling?” Imagine the person has already been selected for the cast and is now auditioning for a specific role.

Prompt 3: Name someone in the cast and describe how you got to know them more throughout the rehearsal process. What did you think of this person before? What brought you together in the show? What do you admire about him/her?

To submit this video assignment, you may do one of two things:

1. upload the videos to google drive and share it with me
2. attach the videos to an email. You may have to send each one individually as email space is on the low end.
